by Doug Webster

A 3-year-old German shepherd, one of a pair of dogs that help 1st Sgt. Holmes, searches buildings for burglars and off the trail. Other times he is searching the woods for hikers and sundry bits of evidence. But if Holmes retires first — or if he's forced into it — the dogs will need to go on without him. Both dogs and handlers are in extensive training for about five months before they go out to work. Both dogs have become a family pet. Doug, packs the usual assortment — a notepad and all the other odds and ends he needs in his mouth: a glittering chain, a long black leash and a furry plume held wags his tail, a sure sign that he loves his work.

When Holmes says "find me the offender's tracks," Webster said that since the man was taken to a local court. And you can tell by the way he wags his tail, a sure sign that he loves his work. But if Holmes retires first — or if he's forced into it — the dogs will need to go on without him. Both dogs and handlers are in extensive training for about five months before they go out to work. Both dogs have become a family pet.

When Holmes receives a call, he knows exactly what to do. "My 2-year-old," says Holmes, explaining the operation of a 3-year-old German shepherd. "He's been with this dude 24 hours a day. And you can tell by the way he wags his tail, a sure sign that he loves his work. But if Holmes retires first — or if he's forced into it — the dogs will need to go on without him. Street Talk: Is the USL government doing enough to obtain release of hostages in Iran:

As far as I know, I have no idea what can be done to obtain the release of hostages. We have to conserve and develop our own. The USL government has to lead the way.

Chris Brandenburg

I just hope it doesn’t break into a military battle. The Chinese are really different from the Vietnamese war. There are so many different people who did not want to be there. I think the Chinese probably would want to end it and do it proudly.

Joan Gibson

Being removed from the military bases in the South is a very sensitive issue. The USL government probably would not be able to do this without a lot of difficulty.

John Scott

The USL government is doing as much as they can. They are trying to negotiate with the Iranian government to get the release of hostages. There is a lot of work that needs to be done.

Hugh Wilson

There’s only one other thing that they could do: tell them to turn off the radio and thinking about their lady friend or new lady friend or next month’s vacation. The argument you just had with your wife, and suddenly you’re being attacked by a couple of nice lunches or a belligerent that threatens your seminar, fills your head with anxiety. You’re aware that your heart is beating 120 beats per minute.

Larry Williams

I don’t think I know enough to say what should be done. I’m not sure that what I know is that it is not. And I’m not sure that what I know is that it is not. It’s very difficult.

Maxine Meadows

You’re driving along the interstate keeping an eye on the traffic and radio thinking about your lady friend or new lady friend or next month’s vacation or the argument you just had with your wife, and suddenly you’re being attacked by a couple of nice lunches or a belligerent that threatens your seminar, fills your head with anxiety. You’re aware that your heart is beating 120 beats per minute.

Robin Hoff

You step on the gas, pulling away. Try to think straight again, and this time the driver is only a foot or so off your tail. You slow down, and the truck passes, often crowding as close as it can. You see the driver shake his head and blow you a parting kiss. Sometimes he’ll even honk. Do you have any idea how close you are to the edge? Sometimes you do.

Karen Marchioro

There is no way to know how close you are to the edge. Sometimes you do. Sometimes you don’t.

Civilizing the wilderness

Each tree is analyzed prior to cutting so that the best grade of lumber can be extracted.

The roar of the saw is ignored as Dave Downey concentrates on felling a tree.

They're logging in Federal Way

Deep in the heart of 330 acres of densely forested Weyerhaeuser property, the growl of the chain saw echoes through the fog. Gradually working their way deeper into the woods, a small group of loggers discriminately remove hemlock, fir, cedar and alder to make way for homes, schools, businesses and streets.

The six-member crew, employed by Austin Shepherd, owner of a Federal Way logging company, do their part to civilize the property that lies between 33rd and 330th Street east and west and Sixth and 21st Street north and south.

Gradually, stacks of sorted logs pile up along a winding, mud-clogged road for later removal. The bulk of the logs will be sold to St. Regis or Weyerhaeuser. What's left will be sold as firewood.

Unlike days gone by, Shepherd said they "salvage everything but the sound of the tree when it crashed."

Piled high with logs, the heavily laden truck winds slowly out of the woods to deliver its load to a sawmill.

Headline wrong

A headline in the Nov. 14 issue of the Des Moines News falsely stated that a Des Moines City Council member had been cited by the city prosecutor.

The headline should have informed that a current candidate’s name had been referred to the prosecutor for failure to file a financial report with the state Public Disclosure Commission.

We regret the error and apologize to the candidate, Bruce Hall.

A chemistry experiment that went awry Saturday led to a fire in a garage.

Two 13-year-old boys were arrested Wednesday after they attempted to steal two boats from the Des Moines Marina.

The youth boarded a 30-foot boat, which approached one of the boys. The boy then realized the boat was not his and identified when officers arrived. One subject was taken to the Youth Service Center and the second was released to his parents.

Two little girls lose sailboats to vandals

by Loren Bliss

All three girls, and her sister Amy, 7, used to have a 14-foot orange sailboat.

It was present from their father, and the girls were smitten with their parents' supervision, to learn how to sail.

But the boat is no more.

Thanks to the hooligans who ransacked the family's 38th Place Southeast last Friday night, all that's left is the tiller and a sail.

And Christopher Stones, a U.S. Coastguardman who is the girls' father, is quietly furious.

"I couldn't believe it at first," he said. "These people — apparently they were teenagers — dragged the boat into the water nearby.

They also broke into a all cabin and used it to build a fire on the beach — after which they tore them down and use them for,

"Something has has to be done about this sort of thing," he added.

But Stone isn't giving up hope.

"As long as there's a chance, we'll keep trying," he said.

The little boat is no more.

It was a present from their father.

"I'd even be willing to teach neighborhood kids how to sail," he said.

But Stone is still hopeful.

"SOMETHING HAS to be done about this sort of thing," he added.

The county comes down here and the kids just.

"You know," said Stone, "it's so bad down here that the county can't even keep signs up along the ties."

Ranger saves 2 from chilly sound

by Loren Bliss

A Ranger from the Seattle Fire Department was patrolling the area and came upon two men in the water. He immediately contacted the coast guard and a boat from a nearby resident and sank it, said Malley. Malley said he had no idea why the Coast Guard hadn't appeared.

"They had drifted into the shipping lanes, and the only way they found them — it was pitch dark — was by following their cries for help," he said.

About half an hour after we got them a hanger hit their kyak and sunk it," said Malley.

Federal Way Community Council pleads for election results to be validated.

The ballot taking place in elementary school service areas where no water turnover was too small to validate the results.

A minimum of 20 votes must be cast at each polling place for the results to be certified. Preliminary results will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Election Day.

The Navy's 85 basic training center is in Great Lakes, Illinois.

Federal Way Christian Church building progresses

Excitement is mounting among members and friends of the Federal Way Christian Church as news of the new sanctuary and nursery facilities being constructed has spread. The new church facility, scheduled for completion in December, will be dedicated on January 13th.

The new sanctuary will be a spacious, modern structure with state-of-the-art acoustics and lighting. It will accommodate up to 1,000 worshippers and will feature a large sound system and video display. The sanctuary will also include a new nursery with comfortable seating for families and children.

New offices for the church administration and a new educational unit for children are also being constructed. These will be located adjacent to the sanctuary and will provide much-needed space for the church's growing programs.

The new building will be dedicated on January 13th, with services starting at 10:00 a.m. The new sanctuary and nursery will be open for tours following the dedication ceremony.

The new building is being constructed on the site of the old sanctuary and will provide much-needed space for the church's growing programs. It is expected to be completed in time for the church's 50th anniversary celebration in 2023.

As the church grows and expands, it is important to maintain a strong connection with our community. The new sanctuary and nursery will provide the space and facilities needed to continue our mission of serving our community and spreading the message of Jesus Christ.

Child Evangelism plans workshop

Putting Christ back into Christianity is the battlecry of Child Evangelism Fellowship, according to Pastor Viau, director of the organization. "There is much congruity between our ministry and that of the local church," say the leaders of the children's ministry. "They need children to have a Christmas party.

Nick Snider has a piece of the action

by Harry Brooks

Nick Snider would trade the entire Pittsburgh Pirate baseball team for House "Tyrone" cards, which were in existence in the early 1900s and died in 1910. In the real baseball world, such curiosities would be considered beaus, but just the opposite is true for drawings of baseball card collections, each of the 1970 Pirate cards was estimated at five cents. T-Birds nip Clark for volleyball crown

by Brian Leutenmaier
The Highline College HCC women's volleyball team will pick up a lot of people this season with its height, its skill, and its balance. The Thunderbird's 7-2-1 season will mark the beginning of a new era for the program.

The Thunderbird season started at a difficult position, as they faced the New Mexico State University Aggies in the first game. Despite starting slow, the team was able to pull out a 15-2 victory, setting the stage for the rest of the season.

The Thunderbird's opening match against the Aggies was the first of many that would see the program make strides. The team continued to improve throughout the season, culminating in a 7-2-1 record.

Leading this select group of players was Becky Sturtz, who was in her senior season and was able to carry the team on her back throughout the year. Her consistent performance helped the team stay afloat and provided a foundation for future success.

The HCC hoopers feature balance in all aspects of the game, with players such as Dale Bolinger and Luane Sinkey providing leadership and consistency throughout the season.

The Thunderbird Tourney was a testament to the team's hard work and dedication, as they were able to pull out a 3-0 victory in the final game against the visiting Lincoln College Thunderbirds.

School Athletic Coaches Association with the National High School Coaches Association convention at the Sea-Tac Airport and adjacent hotels this summer.

Savage, for 22 years cross country coach at Renton High School, said selection of the Washington State contingent will be made soon. Such names as Mike Pyeatt of Issaquah, AAA boys champ in the state race on the Wolverine layout, and Lisa Mitchell of Sammamish, AAA girls’ titlist, will be high on the list.

Washington’s representatives should do well in the elite race, Savage said, if last year’s results are an indication. Dave Barnett, the 1978 AAA champion from Aberdeen, finished second in the Orlando competition.

The inaugural event last summer in Orlando, Fla., was for boys only. The June 24 event, held in consultation with Highline School District athletic director Larry O’Neal, that the final choice of Evergreen as the meet site was made.

It’s aesthetic, and at the same time a real test,” Savage said. “Very few cross country courses meet that criteria.”

“I don’t think there’s a better course,” Savage said. “It’s a once-in-a-lifetime shot. We’ll do our best to put on a class meet.”
Austin will play in Avon tourney

Campbell Sports Inc. learned Monday that U.S. Open Tennis Champion Tracy Austin will head the list of entries for the 1980 $150,000 AVON Tennis Championships of Seattle. Presenting by the Old National Bank, the AVON Tennis Championships of Seattle will be held between Jan. 28 and Feb. 3 at the Seattle Center.

Austin, who will be making her professional tennis appearance in Seattle, will be joined by Wendy Turnbull, Sue Barker and Virginia Ruzici in the Seattle tournament, the fourth stop on the 1980 AVON circuit.

Michael Campbell, president of Campbell Sports Inc., said he was extremely pleased to learn the U.S. Open Champion will participate in the Seattle AVON Championships.

"I really couldn't be happier about the announcement. Tracy is considered by many people to be the best women's tennis player in the world and her participation in our tournament should make it more exciting than ever," said Campbell.

Campbell said he hopes the remainder of the top player selections will be made soon.

"I hope to be in a position within one or two weeks to announce that additional top players have officially signed to participate in the Seattle tournament. This first announcement guarantees us that we will have four world-class professionals in the competition," said Campbell.

On Sept. 9, 1979, the 16-year-old Austin became the youngest winner in the history of U.S. Open competition. She defeated Chris Evert Lloyd in the finals 6-4, 6-3.

Tracy Austin is currently ranked by the Women's Tennis Assn. (WTA) computer as the third best player in the world. Many tennis critics consider her to be the top player in the world.

In 1977, Tracy became the youngest player to participate in The Wimbledon. She reached the third round of competition in that international tennis classic.

Selling Your House
By Doug Fields

FIRST IMPRESSION COUNTS
What will a prospective buyer notice about your home the first time it hits the street and objectively look at it for the first time? A buyer, for instance, smells, by nature, if a house is in better or worse condition than it should be.

The easiest, best way to get a buyer to your door is by impressing them with a house that is in good shape, has a good appearance, and presents clearly through a nice, well-kept exterior. If you can get a buyer interested about your home on the outside, they are much more likely to look inside. A buyer who is attracted by the outside of your house is more interested in seeing the inside.

Gutenberg had a hunch it would make a printer's work easier if type could be used over and over in various combinations. Before his time, printers carved entire texts on large blocks of wood. Gutenberg, experimenting, saved up one of these blocks into individual letter units.

His work was not made printing a lot easier, but the nicks it caused would have started the humble and devilish German crowds a revolution made possible for the first time the distribution of ideas to large numbers of people.

Under the interchange of ideas, serfs became restless, nations developed and feudalism crumbled. Revolutionary trouble-makers such as Luther, and later came noisy, direct democracy. They found print was the idea way to express complex thoughts. It was true then, it is true today.

Freedom of the press is a freedom that belongs to the people — not to the media. It is their right to know what is happening in their country and the world. It is their right to dissent, but the constitutional right to publish so that a free people can be informed and educated.

Where there is freedom of the press, there will be true freedom.

Special Turkey Dinner Made Easy

From the days of the Pilgrims, holiday time is a special season dear to everyone. Traditions have developed and are treasured for the celebration of this special occasion. One of the beloved traditions of this holiday season is a bountiful meal featuring a tender, juicy roast Butterball turkey.

Preparing the turkey to perfection is easy with a dependable Butterball turkey and the instructions that come with each bird. As the turkey roasts, either in the conventional or microwave oven, the anticipation of the enjoyment of the turkey, freshly carved and served with all the trimmings, grows.

Another tradition is old-fashioned mincemeat pie for dessert. The filling can be made from scratch in advance and stored in the refrigerator or freezer. The pie can be made on the big day or in advance and frozen. Even the pastry can be put together in a quick and foolproof way using the electric mixer, food processor or conventional method.

The convenient foods of today teamed with modern kitchen appliances make the holiday meal a total pleasure.

Roasting Directions for Butterball Swift's Premium Turkey

To Thaw
Place turkey in refrigerator to refrigerate. Allow 5 days for 8 to 12 pound birds, 3 to 4 days for 12 to 16 pound birds. Refrigeration is not recommended.

To Prepare
1. First, legs and tail are tucked into position, removing skin from body cavity and giblets from rock cavity. Do not cut band from neck cavity. Do not cut band from wing tip.
2. Butter giblets is salted water, about 1/2-hour for liver and 1 1/2 hours for neck, heart and gizzard. Chill and use in gravy or stuffing.
3. Rinse and drain turkey.
4. Stuff neck and body cavities lightly (3/4 cup stuffing per pound purchased weight of turkey).
5. Return tail and legs to tucked position.
6. Skewer neck skin to breast instead of metal skewers. Tie string around turkey to hold wings closed to body.
7. Place turkey, breast side up, on cord tray. Use small glass casserole lids or custard cups to stabilize bird as necessary.

To Test for Doneness
1. Remove giblets from cavity, check to be sure meat thermometer is in original position, not been reached, remove thermometer and freeze. Day of serving, place frozen mincemeat pie in oven for 45 minutes or until golden brown.

Pothuck’s peril can be avoided

Pothuck dinners are not a part of our American tradition, and although they can be a nice way to try some new foods, you don’t have to use them to come back for more. And, bless our friends, they can be a delight. David and Martha Jurluch, for instance, have found that the potluck dinner is a great last-ditch effort to bring family and friends together. They have also found that the potluck dinner can be a delightful finale to the day’s culinary adventures. And they have found that the potluck dinner can be a delightful finale to the day’s culinary adventures.

One way to avoid potluck pitfalls is to have a potluck dinner at a restaurant. The restaurant’s staff can prepare the food, and you can sit down to eat and enjoy the company of your guests. Another way is to have a potluck dinner at a friend’s house. The host can prepare the food, and you can sit down to eat and enjoy the company of your guests. Cooking with herbs a flavorful adventure

Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme...if you think different herbs from lumped all these in savory, or tarragon, you're wrong. Try some of these fragrant herbs in your favorite dishes and you'll be surprised at the wonderfully subtle flavor they add.

After you try these, you might want to start with thyme, dill, marjoram, mint, oregano, savory, or tarragon. Popular usage has lumped all these into a category of spices, but many cooks still differentiate herbs from other food accents by the way they add flavor to a dish. Add herbs after cooking dissipates their delicate flavor. Too much herbs can kill a dish.

Most herbs should be used lightly in tomato soups or salads. Parsley makes a refreshing accent in hot or cold fruit and wine beverages, fresh and veal. Fruit salads and desserts. Beans make hearty salad

Main dish salads are popular year round. In winter a large bowl of hot soup will balance the menu, and in summer you can top it off with a cool dessert.

Whoever first came up with the idea of combining various kinds of beans to make the three bean or four bean salad, came up with a masterpiece. It's a nourishing combination with nothing added. Top it with strips of leftover beef, chicken, turkey ham or salami, you have a really hearty main dish. Here's a good combination to start with:

THREE-BEAN SALAD
(Yields: 10-12 servings)

2 cups cut green beans
2 cups yellow wax beans
2 cups soy beans
2 cups red kidney beans
2 cups green lima beans
2 cups great northern or navy beans
2 cups chickpeas or garbanzos
1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 medium green pepper, chopped
1/2 cup salad oil
1/3 cup vinegar
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

In large bowl, toss beans with onion and green pepper. Combine and pour over salad oil, vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper. Chill before serving. Taste improves with marinating overnight or longer.

Caesar Salad a classic

A little flavor here and a little there is all that is needed to make this a good salad. Caesar Salad, the chef or good cook who first concocted salad, is just such a dish and here it is in the recipe:

CAESAR SALAD

1 clove garlic
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. dry white wine
1 tsp. white vinegar
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. Dijon mustard
1 tsp. lemon juice
4 anchovies or 2 tbsp. anchovy paste
1 egg
3 tbsp. olive oil
5 tbsp. mayonnaise

Preparation:

1. Mince the garlic and mix with the salt, dry mustard, paprika, pepper, wine, white vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, Dijon mustard, lemon juice, anchovies (or anchovy paste), egg, and olive oil.

Note: Post parsley on a leafy base in a large salad bowl. Sprinkle with parsley. Toss in the dressing. Serve immediately.

Here is a recipe for Potatoes:

POLLOPED Potatoes

A quick to prepare, delicious potato casserole:

1. Preheat an oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 2-quart baking dish. Melt the butter or margarine in a saucepan. Blend in the flour. Add the milk and stir until the mixture is thickened. Add the cheese and stir until melted. Remove from the heat. Stir in the soup, commute and salt and pepper. Spread a layer of the mixture in the pan. Continue layering with the other ingredients:

- 5 medium potatoes skins left on.
- 2 small yellow onions, cut into small bits.
- 1 egg
- 1 cup diced french bread
- 2 to 3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
- 3/4 cup grated cheddar cheese
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 2 cups milk
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups bread cubes
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup chopped celery

Sauce Layer:

1. In a saucepan, combine the evaporated milk and the cheese sauce. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Add the cheese and stir until melted. Remove from heat. Stir in the remaining cheese. Spread over the potatoes.

Topping:

1. Top with the remaining bread cubes, and cover with the remaining cheese. Bake for 1 hour, or until brown and bubbly.

Note: The potatoes that have been sauteed earlier are cooked on the side. They are then diced and mixed with the other ingredients.
