Soldier injured in combat in Panama

By LYNN KEECHARD

The usual family get the best Christmas present it could have hoped for: Family members just wish they would have gotten it under slightly better circumstances.

What they got was a note, Chris Robinson, home for the holidays. But they weren't exactly thrilled with how he was arrived — with a shrapnel wound in his head.

But he's home and he's alive, after being one of the heavies wounded in a battle last Wednesday between U.S. and Panamanian forces (PDF) loyal to Panamanian dictator Gen. Manuel Noriega.

Pet. Chris Robinson's D Company of the Fifth Infantry Division's 14th Battalion had been in Panama with his company since November.

He's a regular in the hospital now with a concussion, a sprained ankle, and his leg. Both needed help, as both were under fire. Robinson spent a few days in Wilford Hall Air Force Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas. Doctors determined, he said at Christmastime, just in time to make it home for the holidays. Robinson was a target alert, waiting for the other shoe to drop. Several false alarms kept him on edge.

The night before the battle, the headquarter's wall of the headlines, had been shattered by mortar fire. Robinson and his squad sergeant made it inside the building to seek a cover of a field behind him as well as broken legs.

A BAND OF mortar fire came from POF forces inside the fortress, showering the two.

"These things were exploding eight feet from me, with the mortar fire, and I didn't know how to react. I thought, 'This is it. I'm dead.'" he remembered.

He also remembered the snarling, pain, seeing the blood, and calling another soldier, "I think I've been hit."

A sergeant also was hit as well as his legs. Both needed help, as both were under fire. Robinson spent a few days in Wilford Hall Air Force Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas. Doctors determined, he said at Christmastime, just in time to make it home for the holidays.

"It's unanimous!"

"I've been hit."

"I've been hit."

"I've been hit."

"I've been hit."

CHRIS ROBINSON made it home for Christmas, but not in the manner his family would have liked. Robinson, an Army private, was involved in the fighting last week in Panama. He was wounded by mortar fire when his company was sent to capture the headquarters of Gen. Manuel Noriega's Panamanian Defense Forces.

FEDERAL WAY City Councilman Jim Handmacher takes a stroll near his Lakota Beach home with his wife, Lynne, and their 2-year-old son, Gregory. Lynne and Jim met in high school and married while seniors at Ohio State University.

Continue on A-2

Right side

Ring in the '90s

It's not every year you have the opportunity to ring in a new decade. In fact, it happens only once every 10 years. It was an event worth noting at the Maritime Inn, where visitors and residents alike came to make plans to celebrate New Year's Eve this Sunday. Revellers who want to get out on the town will have plenty of choices. See page A-6.

They said it

Federal Way City Manager Al Lackie during a recent council meeting the city proposed 1996 budget. "It's not every year you have the opportunity to make the federal deficit look like peanuts. Any city would."

Kid stuff

The city of Kent is hosting a New Year's celebration for children and their families tomorrow. The Birthday Bash at Thunderbird Park will take place in the Kent Commons. Tickets are $15 in advance, $20 at the door and start at noon. The party features Dance Zone, Kid City and the New Year's Eve show. For more information call 891-3931.

Game time

A local rain is going to have a hard time taking over for F-30 Franks as the Decatur Gators face the Thomas Jefferson Rattlers in a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

Fed­

tional ob­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to construct­

Se­

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

struct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­

construct­

tions in the Raider

a game originally slated for TV but switched due to con­
Mortar fire brings soldier soldiers for holidays had a head wound. Neither Roderich nor Smith had suffered any other injuries. Authorities believe Smith's wound was caused by a, 40 mm grenade, which is considered a non-lethal weapon.

Continued from A-1

From the Mariners' 9th-inning, the crowd was climbing on top of the dugout and trying to get an autograph from Mark Langston, the Mariners' starting pitcher. A Salvation Army bell-ringer was walking among the crowd, trying to sell Christmas cards and decorations for another year. After the game, the crowd dispersed, and the stadium was left quiet and empty.

Topless-club-ruling could set constitutional precedent

By LYNN FRANCISCO

issions to prevent off-duty officers from entering the club, to prevent children or minors from entering the club, and to prevent crime.

Bullet that killed Tacoma man entered the back of his neck

The bullet that killed a Tacoma man as he fled from his own police station entered the back of his neck, according to police.

Smith's affidavit stated that Officer Robert Michnick shot and killed John J. Smith on the morning of December 29, 1989, in an unincorporated area of Pierce County. The incident occurred during an attempted arrest. Smith was shot in the back of his neck, and died later in the hospital.

Smith's affidavit stated that Officer Robert Michnick shot and killed John J. Smith on the morning of December 29, 1989, in an unincorporated area of Pierce County. The incident occurred during an attempted arrest. Smith was shot in the back of his neck, and died later in the hospital.

Water and sewer budget passes without rate hikes

Continued from A-1

While rates will not change, sewer surcharges will.

The district will spend $8.3 million on water treatment and $4.7 million on sewer treatment. The budget was approved unanimously by the council, which meets on the first Wednesday of every month.

Police

Police to the precinct to get her kids, they missed their last bus home. They are often higher than 5 per cent.

Land Use Notices

Anyone who receives a notice of Land Use Notice of Application may appeal to the city council. A public hearing is scheduled for the night of the 2nd of the month.

The council is scheduled to meet on the last Wednesday of every month at 7 p.m. in the council chambers at 1111 Pacific Avenue. A public hearing is scheduled for the night of the 2nd of the month.

The council continued to work on the development plan, which includes the creation of a new park and the construction of a new school. However, the council was unable to agree on a final plan. The council is scheduled to meet on the last Wednesday of every month at 7 p.m. in the council chambers at 1111 Pacific Avenue.
St. Vincent

Church and charity take name from saint who helped the poor confusion. Better to ask for one cent de Paul Catholic Church.

By WENDY CULVERWELL

The church is a Catholic parish, devoted to assisting the poor.

Carrie Dyer, president of St. Vincent de Paul, the church.

Tony and his wife, Carol, head service groups at their church. Carol has the head service groups at their church. Carol handles pleas for help from the needy. Afghan dogs and the fleet of cats kids have grown and left their home. The "kids" are the two toddler-aged granddaughter and her one-year-old niece.

It's hard to imagine either of them, we're really sincere. He will.

We're there for help. Secretaries at St. Vincent de Paul (there is usually one in each Catholic parish) is funded entirely by donations from the parishioners.

Each Sunday, after Mass Carol and Tony and other volunteers sit up with collection plates and a glass of water. They have a policy of never turning away any client, a true need, which means they must allocate their resources extremely carefully. They are dependent on help with power bills. Tony handles pleas for help from the family and talks to them about their situation. The society is exclusively for families who have no power bills. They have a policy of never turning away any client, a true need, which means they must allocate their resources extremely carefully. They are dependent on help with power bills.

Tony Power, power agency, he said.

Pax Christi Power will take later payments.

Why do THE Robinsons commit so much time to their work? Tony said, "It's the least we can do. It's our way of trying to keep our eyes on our work. The base of the help we provide is to have three goals. Otherwise, we would lose track of the three goals, and we would have to go back, and ask the Lord to help us with them. It's a good way to keep our minds on our work."

Every year we expect more clients and more work.

The First United Methodist Church

36-304 S.

837-1210

LET US TRY TO BEGIN A NEW LIFE IN THE NEW DECADE

We are about to say goodbye to the 1980s, and we can imagine all the new years. This is the year of the new decade. Let's make it a decade of growth and improvement. Let's make it a decade of new friendships and new opportunities.

Let's make it a decade of new beginnings.

The new decade will be the best of both worlds and the worst of both decades: resolutions, and ask the Lord to help us with them. It's a good way to keep our minds on our work. The base of the help we provide is to have three goals.

Otherwise, we would lose track of the three goals, and we would have to go back, and ask the Lord to help us with them. It's a good way to keep our minds on our work.

Every year we expect more clients and more work.

The First United Methodist Church

36-304 S.

837-1210
Sprightly painter spurns retirement

By SEAN ROBINSON

"I can't get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

"I CAN'T get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

Parker is a painter who has been working for 70 years. She paints every day in her studio. She also plays the organ and the vibra-harp.

"I can't get some of the things I need," she said. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

"I CAN'T get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

Parker is a painter who has been working for 70 years. She paints every day in her studio. She also plays the organ and the vibra-harp.

"I can't get some of the things I need," she said. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

"I CAN'T get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

Parker is a painter who has been working for 70 years. She paints every day in her studio. She also plays the organ and the vibra-harp.

"I can't get some of the things I need," she said. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

"I CAN'T get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

Parker is a painter who has been working for 70 years. She paints every day in her studio. She also plays the organ and the vibra-harp.

"I can't get some of the things I need," she said. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"

"I CAN'T get some of the things I need," said Parker. "Some highbrows wanted them. I had to throw away a total of three drawings. They couldn't help laughing at me. 'I'm planning to take a cruise,' she said. 'Don't bother, anyway.'"
Special events hail New Year, decade's end

Sports fans rush toward End Zone

By JIM ROBINSON

It's not too early to start listing.

In the world of sports, it was just another day at the office for Betty Caughan. The End Zone Tavern in Federal Way has been her workplace for 15 years. The bar is open seven days a week from noon to 2 a.m. It's well known for its sports coverage and the food it serves.

 "%The place is a dump. It's very casual and it works. It's a cross between a bar and a hobby shop," said Caughan.

Caughan, who has been a bartender at the End Zone for 10 years, said she enjoys it. "It's very casual and it works. It's a cross between a bar and a hobby shop," she said.

Her job is to keep the place running smoothly, which includes keeping an eye on the dishes and making sure they're cooked properly.

"The place is a dump. It's very casual and it works. It's a cross between a bar and a hobby shop," she said.

Caughan's duties include making sure the food is cooked properly, keeping an eye on the dishes, and making sure the place runs smoothly.

She said she enjoys the job because it's "very casual and it works. It's a cross between a bar and a hobby shop."
Relocation: Port buyout manager moves on

A-6 Friday, December 29, 1989 The News

By BECKY KRAMER

For George Sutter, a cycle is now coming full circle.

Seattle's acquisition and relocation program will begin to end once Sutter leaves his current position at the Port of Seattle.

Sutter is in the midst of seeing that an independent assessor has determined the value of the homes or sites or both. If it would be worth it if it were set in an area affected by airport noise.

It also requires the port to pay moving costs within a 50-mile radius, closing costs and an interest differential, if the interested parties want to move to a new home.

In the 1970s and early 1980s, several hundred homes in the noise corridor north and south of the airport were scheduled for buyout by early 1981. At a rate of about 3 homes a day, the Seattle-based airport expanded the corridor to the south.

Sutter has also been with the program long enough to see how some undertakers are revitalizing the wasteland left behind by the bought-out houses.

King County officials said the port has begun to work with land north of the airport into a wilderness park.

still, I've heard stories of roads being built across the airport which will open up land there for a business park.

IT'S BEEN an emotional job, said Sutter, who worked in real estate properties for the port before he managed the acquisition program.

When people have lived in a home for years, they have their roots, he said. They've raised their children there, paid off their home, joined a church or other organizations and made plans for their kids to take up and move.

"Generally the community we're trying to move is one of the most difficult tasks he faced at the port," Sutter said.

But Sutter and his staff built a record for fairness and a pretty positive feeling that under George's administration, they treated it fairly," he added.

The staff committed to individual concerns that developed was important, too, Sutter added, because it is hard for people to live in a neighborhood that will be bought out.

A casual stop in 8th Avenue South just north of South 240th Street, the very last area slated for buyout, the neighbors were told in 1983 that the area would eventually be bought out and since then many of the houses on the block have converted to rgba.

Though people feel they will get a fair price for their house, they worry about whether they will find a new home they can afford in the neighborhood, she said.

"But my perception is that I followed for his programs and been concerned about people. You don't ask more of a housemate than that," Jones said.

Earl Monday, who manages the port's noise remedies program, will take over Sutter's duties.

Blood supplies are running low

The Puget Sound Blood Center has issued an urgent plea for donations.

Over 500 donors are needed to keep blood supplies from dipping below levels that could lead to blood transfusions in a federal hospital.

The Federal Way is at 15th and Anderson. For more information, call 241-6300.

CORRECTION

The Dec. 23 edition of the Mirror contained an error in the advertisement for Steevers Furniture Department. Due to a production error, the advertisement did not appear as it was received at the newspaper. The advertisement will appear in an upcoming issue. We regret any inconvenience the error may have caused our readers.

A TRADITION OF CARING... SINCE 1868

1335 S.W. Dash Point Road 237-1517

1732 Broadway 322-0613

1464 Pacific Highway So.

142-3730

STANDARDS

CHOICE

SEARS

FEDERAL WAY

1644 Pacific Highway South

RETAIL

Monday, December 29, 1989

10,000 sq. ft.

12 Quart

$1

Men's Workshirts 6" or 8" handsewn. Center front pocket.

$2

Bngle Suits

$2

Men's Workshirts 6" or 8" handsewn. Center front pocket.

$2

Bngle Suits

$2

Med. Fill Pillow

$2

Coodes Pilling Bul 11 cu.

$2

Per Gallon 2088

$2

Maid. Choice

$2

Peanut Envelopes

$2

Year Choice

$2

Value Collection Filling 10" pet. Lux. green plants are a

$2

Year Choice

$2

Plaza 10-Pack Planters

$2

Value Collection

$2

Bath Towels Velour

$2

Wide

$2

Sturdy, all steel chair.

$2

10" pot. Lush, green plants are a

$2

i

$2

Storage Box Sturdy

$2

24"x45" $2

Choice

$2

Dining Stack Chair

$2

Norweco 30 Gallon

$2

Your brighter, safer home. Choose

$2

Value Collection

$2

4' cord. PS7

$2

Value Collection

$2

Choice

$2

Value Collection

$2

Value Collection

$2

Your taller, more colorful home.

$2

Value Collection

$2

Pentab Envelopes

$2

Value Collection

$2

Value Collection

$2

Value Collection

$2

Your taller, more colorful home.
State tournament games begin Jan. 6 for local youth teams

I sure hope you all had a good Christmas and that everything went well for you. The New Year is a time for hope and dreams, and it's my hope that you will have a great 1989. The new year will bring with it new challenges, and I'm sure you will face them with courage and determination.

Ron Whaley

State Track Champions - Federal Way High School had two district track champions in 1989. They were seniors Andrew Anderson and Ed Miller. Anderson took home the Class AAA state title in the 1,200 meters and also was second in the 800 and sixth in the 4x100 relay. Anderson is expected to continue his success in college.

Miller is another strong contender in the 4x100 as a football scholarship and he also plans to compete in track.

Girls Basketball - The 1988-89 basketball season was a success for the Thomas Jefferson girls' basketball team. They started the season with a 1-6-1 record but finished the season with a 14-16-1 record. The team made it to the state tournament with a 4-1 victory over Bonney Lake in the first round. In the championship game, the Jaguars were defeated by the Federal Way Skyhawks, 4-1, in a dramatic defensive struggle.

Boys Soccer - The Federal Way boys soccer team finished as the Western Washington Conference (WWC) runners-up. The team finished with a 2-3-1 record in the WWC, which is the highest finish in the team's history.

Wrestling - The Federal Way wrestling team finished the season with a 4-0 record, winning five of the six section matches. The team also qualified for the state tournament, where they finished in seventh place.

American Legion Baseball - The Federal Way American Legion baseball team finished the season with a 24-20 record, winning the District 3 championship and advancing to the state tournament. The team finished in fourth place, just missing the state championship.

Sewing - The Federal Way girls' 4x4 team, coached by Pat Leonardi, finished first in the Puget Sound Division with a 25-2 record and second in the state tournament with a 43-1 record.

Summertime - The Federal Way girls' 4x4 team, coached by Pat Leonardi, finished first in the Puget Sound Division with a 25-2 record and second in the state tournament with a 43-1 record.

TJ hooters head the list of Top 10 for '89

By CHUCK MINGO

It was an exciting year for girls' soccer, as all three local high school teams reached the state tournament. The Thomas Jefferson girls' soccer team, led by Head Coach Nelson Garcia, finished in first place in the Puget Division. The team was named Defensive Back of the Year in the Puget Division.

Decatur Wins State Title

The Decatur girls' soccer team, led by Head Coach Mark Miller, won the Class AAA state championship this past fall. Miller was named Washington State Youth Soccer Association Coach of the Year.

Sparks Stadium

Sparks Stadium in Puyallup. The tournament games will start Jan. 6 and will end Feb. 17-18, with boys on Feb. 24-25, and girls on March 2-3.

Community Games

The community games will start Jan. 6 and will end Feb. 17-18, with boys on Feb. 24-25, and girls on March 2-3.

Tournaments

The tournaments will start Jan. 6 and will end Feb. 17-18, with boys on Feb. 24-25, and girls on March 2-3.
By TIM CLINTON

RAIDERS

The raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.

The Raiders racked up five straight league titles in the decade, and 13 overall, in a row from 1984 and another 10 — and 14 in all — going back to the national record books.

Bob Jones was the star in the 1980s, but a lot of other Raider boys and girls wore the same name, the name of the Thomas Jefferson boys' soccer team.
When it comes to convenience... FAX your Classified Ad 241-2788
THE FINE FORD FAMILY USED CAR SPECIALS

<table> <thead>
<tr>
<th>Make/Model</th>
<th>Price</th>
</tr> </thead> <tbody>
<tr>
<td>NEW CARS</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>USED CARS</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

VOLVO NEW & USED YEAR-END CLEARANCE SALE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Make/Model</th>
<th>Price</th>
</tr> </thead> <tbody>
<tr>
<td>NEW</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>USED</td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

1990 FORD CARS SUPER SAVINGS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Make/Model</th>
<th>Price</th>
</tr> </thead> <tbody>
<tr>
<td>NEW</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>USED</td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

NEW 1990 FORD TRUCKS & VANS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Make/Model</th>
<th>Price</th>
</tr> </thead> <tbody>
<tr>
<td>NEW</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>USED</td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>

---

THE NEWS

Kent 852-1480

BOWEN KENT SCARFF FORD VOLVO

Serving South King County for over 30 years

WASHINGTON'S VOLUME FORD-VOLVO STORE YOUR BELIEVABLE AWARD-WINNING DEALER 852-1480

Our Final Sale of the Year

Sale ends Jan. 2nd. Units subject to prior sale. All prices plus tax & license. Some rebates may end w/out notice.